Dear Sister

The last letter I rec^d from you bore the Oct. the 21st 1811 it announced the arrival of my letter dated the 24th of July which was not the last one that I wrote the last letter I wrote you bore date the date 1st November 1811 but I have since been informed by J. Miller by letter from his Wife that you have not received it I was happy to hear of your perfect health and happiness as also of pleasure of the announcing another Son as to the Effects it is impossible for me to say much about at present but I am extremely happy to hear of your having got somewhat what you have you may depend upon it I am anxious to come to England to seek further into it as you say Justice has been done I don't doubt it but should ~~for~~ ^{inform} myself much better I see of it if I was at home I shall make it my business to go to Doctors Commons as soon as I arrive as to the Agents I don't wish to trouble any or to make any further enquiry untill I get home unless it is from your self as it is only your trouble and expence for no satisfaction therefore I remain content untill my arrival any information you can give me I shall allways be happy to hear and hope you will write me as often as convenient for it allway ~~has~~ gives me pleasure to hear of your Health yours and Childrens Welfare

I am fully convinced of your affectionate attendance on the Remains of Dear Mother as also of your due respect to her Funerall which I make no doubt but was as respectable as became necessary in every ~~res~~ point I am extremely sorry to hear of my Uncle David's misfortunes and hope he will soon be able to reinstate himself again please present my best respects to Ehos Chance & Family tell them I am well and should be very happy to hear from them whenever you write if convenient tell J Millers Wife he is in perfect health at present and hears that the Leda Shares for Buenos Ayres but cant depend upon the truth therefore if convenient to let him know if possible

I have present my best Love Dear Brother & Sister to you & family so remain

Your Loving
Brother
